1 THE DEPUTY COURT CLERK: All rise.

2 (Open court begins at 10:25 a.m.)

3 THE COURT: All right. Have a seat, please.

4 We have another court reporter filling in
5 today for Vinnie, so, please, if you're going to speak
6 up, she's not familiar with who you are. Just say
7 your name for the record, all right.

8 Thank you.

9 Okay. So I have your proposed agenda and 10 report. In addition to this, I know you listed -- I
11 want to get to these in a few moments, but a number of 12 the motions that were pending, putting aside the 13 remand motions, which I'm hoping to get a batch out
14 this month, all of these 41(a)(2) motions, I think my 15 law clerk had sent you an email saying I wanted to 16 address them this morning.

17 So I'm assuming you're prepared to address
18 them, right?

19 MS. O'DELL: Your Honor, we've met and 20 conferred, and we're waiting on a proposal from the 21 defendants on how -- a procedure -- on how to deal
22 with those. But that's sort of our current status.

23 THE COURT: Well, I wasn't familiar -- aware 24 of that because right now I'm sitting with a lot of 25 motions. Some that were filed in the fall; some that

1 were filed more recently, with moving and opposition
2 briefs. No replies. Some of them have reply briefs,
3 excuse me, by the plaintiff.

4 So I'd like to know where you are on that, and 5 I'll weigh in if you want me to help you.

6 MS. O'DELL: Yes, ma'am. Just to make sure
7 I'm clear, you're talking about the Rule 41 notices of 8 voluntary dismissal motions, or are you talking about 9 the Exhibit A motions at the end of the report?

10 THE COURT: Well, let's see. Which are your 11 Exhibit A?

12 MS. O'DELL: I was referring to the motions
13 listed on Page 4 that were notices of dismissal that 14 were filed, defendants have objected, Mr. Fang reached 15 out to us to meet and confer, and we've been -- we've 16 done that. We're waiting on a proposal from the 17 defendants in terms of a procedure on how to handle
18 this -- our position --

19 THE COURT: I'd like to hear what that is,
20 though. I mean, I don't understand the big 21 discussion, so, okay. So what are the issues?

22 MS. O'DELL: Well, our position is, your
23 Honor -- if under Third Circuit law that if a Rule 41
24 dismissal is filed and the defendants essentially
25 would not be prejudiced, then that should be granted,

1 that voluntary dismissal should be allowed without
2 prejudice. And so in each of these instances, the 3 notice has been filed -- dismissal, excuse me, and --

4 THE COURT: Well, it has to be because there
5 is an appearance or answer, so it has to be by order
6 of the Court. It has to be an application. You can't 7 simply do it on your own. But they've weighed in 8 because they want to add -- they said in their papers,
9 at the very least, they want to add a restriction on 10 the venue that it has to be re-filed here.

11 Now, on some of the earlier motions I saw that 12 there was -- apparently, there was some willingness to 13 do that. Later motions, it does not appear that 14 that's the case. So from my perspective, that's kind 15 of the only holdup that I see here. Whether there is 16 a re-filing restriction or not; is that correct?

17 MS. TERSIGNI: Yes, your Honor.

18 THE COURT: Right. Because no one is 19 objecting to the fact that they should be dismissals
20 without prejudice, right?

21 MS. TERSIGNI: I mean, ideally, I think we 22 would want the cases to be dismissed with prejudice.

23 THE COURT: I'd be the first in the nation to 24 ever decide such a thing on the status of these cases,
25 and I'm not going to do that. So.

1 MS. O'DELL: That's helpful, your Honor,
2 because that's been our primary concern.

3 THE COURT: No. These are all without
4 prejudice. As I saw it -- which is one of the reasons
5 I did want to discuss these today, what I really
6 saw -- and I know you listed it as your alternative,
7 but I know you know coming in, you were never getting 8 a "with prejudice" in any of these, is this issue of 9 re-filing and a forum restriction on re-filing.
10 Re-filing back in the MDL or in -- which, in your 11 reply briefs, at least for those where there were 12 reply briefs; there were many where there were no
13 reply briefs. But in the ones that have had them,
14 you've objected to that forum filing. Now, I don't 15 know if that's still the case or not.

16 MS. O'DELL: Individual lawyers have asserted
17 those positions. I think we can work out an 18 arrangement, your Honor, whereby the plaintiff would 19 either re-file in the MDL, if it's still ongoing at 20 that point, or re-file in -- and I don't know if there
21 would be some parameters, but appropriate
22 jurisdiction, whether that's the resident state or the 23 state -- the resident state in one of the venues.

24 THE COURT: Okay. And I'm not sure -- from 25 what you just said, I'm not sure if I understood

1 completely. You said if the MDL is still ongoing,
2 you'll file here.

3 MS. O'DELL: Yes.

4 THE COURT: And it's only if the MDL is not
5 ongoing that then they'll file an appropriate
6 jurisdiction, or are you saying you want to have open
7 both alternatives?

8 MS. O'DELL: Both alternatives.

9 THE COURT: At the same time?

10 MS. O'DELL: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Regardless of whether the MDL is 12 pending?

13 MS. O'DELL: That's correct. But in many of 14 these instances, as I understand it, the cancer in 15 question ended up being a uterine cancer as opposed to 16 ovarian cancer. And 20 years down the road there may 17 be a development of ovarian cancer, and MDL may be 18 ongoing or may not.

19 THE COURT: Right.

20 MS. O'DELL: But we need both alternatives,
21 and we have not discussed with defendants what their
22 openness is, but what we would want is either the MDL
23 or an appropriate jurisdiction where that -- whether 24 that is the resident state of the plaintiff or the 25 resident state of one of the defendants.

1 THE COURT: Okay. So this is what my question
2 is, because I saw that one of the briefs did reference
3 for -- I think it was three different plaintiffs that 4 it was not ovarian cancer, and that's why you were 5 looking to dismiss. Most of the briefing did not
6 indicate the reason why you're dismissing. And I
7 wasn't sure if it was the same reason for all of them
8 because -- there was even some dispute in the briefing
9 as to whether -- not knowing what the reason is. And 10 you said, we don't have to disclose our reasons,
11 et cetera. It was a different lawyer, not your firm.
12 But is that basically the reason why in all of these 13 cases?

14 MS. O'DELL: I can't represent that.

15 THE COURT: Okay. Because there was
16 opposition to -- given any reason by the first batch
17 of motions that were filed back in the fall, I think.

18 So, Ms. Sharko, the proposal is that they 19 would agree that re-filing be restricted either to the 20 MDL or to an appropriate forum which would be 21 designated as either where the plaintiff lives or 22 where one -- or the defendants.

23 New Jersey being one of those as well,
24 obviously.

25 MS. SHARKO: So I don't agree to quote,

1 unquote, appropriate because we will, I am certain,
2 then end up litigating what "appropriate" meant. So
3 it would have to be specified.

4 THE COURT: I think she was prepared to 5 specify by saying either the residence of the 6 plaintiff, right? Or a jurisdiction where, I guess,
7 the defendants -- you may have varying views of where 8 they are subject to jurisdiction, but some of that has 9 kind of been determined already.

10 MS. O'DELL: That's to -- well, I guess to be 11 clear, let me just restate it. I said the resident
12 state of the plaintiff, your Honor, if there are a 13 number of places where it might be appropriate for the 14 plaintiff to file a lawsuit. It can be the resident
15 state; it can be the place where they were diagnosed
16 and treated, the place they used talcum powder for the 17 majority of the time. There are multiple places. So 18 I guess I should be clear about that. As to the 19 appropriate jurisdiction for the defendants, it's --
20 it would certainly be covered by BMS, and certainly 21 the resident state of the defendants would be
22 appropriate. There may be some other appropriate 23 jurisdictions as well.

24 MS. SHARKO: So it sounds like maybe we should 25 talk, and if we can't resolve it, bring it to

1 your Honor. Because I don't agree that, you know, if
2 the woman happened to be passing through St. Louis
3 and, you know, applied baby powder, that's then an 4 appropriate jurisdiction. And I don't agree that if 5 one defendant has their place of business in -- pick a
6 state, New Hampshire, that's an appropriate place for 7 a lawsuit against Johnson & Johnson. And I wouldn't 8 want the language of the order to infer that; that's 9 one issue. The other bucket of issues is statute of 10 limitations. We're not agreeing to toll the statute
11 of limitations on these if they dismiss.

12 THE COURT: I don't think there is a request
13 for that.

14 MS. O'DELL: There is no request for that.

15 THE COURT: And obviously, for those women who 16 have not developed this cancer and the statute hasn't 17 begun to run, they don't have a cause of action at 18 all.

19 But we don't know because, I guess,
20 Ms. O'Dell, you can't represent today that all of 21 those cases for which motions were brought fall within 22 that category.

23 MS. O'DELL: I cannot, your Honor.

24 THE COURT: Right. And we don't know why they 25 brought those dismissal motions.

1 MS. O'DELL: There would be a multitude of 2 reasons. And I'm privy to some, but not all.

3 THE COURT: I'll let you go back and work on
4 it, but not for too long, on the language. So let's 5 get these done, because I'm holding all of these and 6 I'd like to get rid of them. I've read them all.
7 They're pretty much all the same. They come in two 8 different batches.

9 I noticed that on one of them, in fact, though
10 I guess it was sent in looking like it was agreed
11 to -- I didn't realize that there had been an answer
12 filed that I think I entered, and I think that was the 13 Tracianne Hartnett one. There was an order entered in 14 it, which I guess I have to -- this was filed as a
15 notice of voluntary dismissal, which I thought -- at 16 that point, I had no idea that there had been answers
17 or what the position was. I think we entered an order
18 looking at it. I think we did. I'd have to vacate
19 that and enter a new order, basically.

20 MS. SHARKO: Okay. I mean, that's the other
21 problem. And hopefully, an agreement will cure that,
22 which is -- we're trying to file our notices of 23 appearance as fast as we can. Sometimes the people
24 who want to dismiss beat us to the clerk's office.
25 Other times they don't, but they still file a

1 dismissal anyway, and so having a procedure laid out
2 would be good. I agree.

3 THE COURT: Okay. So you'll get to this
4 fairly quickly.

5 MS. SHARKO: Within a week.

6 THE COURT: Perfect.

7 MS. SHARKO: If we can't agree, we'll submit
8 an order.

9 THE COURT: Right. And please go through -- I
10 mean, I try to go through and mark them all off and 11 what categories they fell in. I think -- I'm not 12 sure, but Hartnett may have been the only one where 13 perhaps there was an order entered before.

14 But it would be helpful to me -- and, by the 15 way, one of the ones you listed -- my courtroom deputy 16 was checking, the Cheryl Noel Adams, which was 17 17-9411. When we looked that up, there was nothing
18 filed in there. So maybe you gave me the wrong name
19 on that one or the wrong docket number. So we checked
20 the docket. Jackie printed it yesterday, and there
21 was nothing -- there was no voluntary dismissal filed
22 in that one.

23 MS. SHARKO: We apologize and we'll check.

24 THE COURT: We try to do our homework.

25 But if you could -- if you could carefully go

1 through the list of -- because there are a lot of
2 firms involved in doing this, not just lead counsel
3 here, so let's get the list of all of them so that 4 when you do do your protocol and you want to send in 5 the orders, it's clear that we've got them all.

6 If there is one -- for instance, I think
7 Hartnett -- or if there are any others that you think 8 we have to first vacate the order and then enter a new 9 one that's consistent with whatever your protocol is,
10 send me the order that reflects that as well in those 11 cases. So I'll put that burden on you. And if you
12 run into an issue on your language, I'll get on the 13 phone with you. This is something I'll deal with, not 14 Judge Pisano. So please just get in touch with me.

15 MS. SHARKO: I'm sorry -- for the court
16 reporter. I'm Susan Sharko, and this is Julie 17 Tersigni.

18 THE COURT: That she had. I think Vinnie
19 educated her on you and on Ms. O'Dell, at least.

20 All right. So that's on those motions, which 21 I did want to now move forward on.

22 And with regard to -- as I said on the remand
23 motions that you have listed, I'm hoping to get a
24 batch of them out this month -- later this month.

25 Okay. Let's turn now to the agenda items.

1 You started with referencing depositions. And that
2 you're still working on the 30(b)(6) deposition
3 notices, protocols, et cetera, and that you're going
4 to be presenting that to Judge Pisano to the extent
5 that you cannot agree on all issues.

6 MS. O'DELL: Yes, your Honor. That's correct.

7 THE COURT: And with regard to third-party
8 witness depositions, it looks like the Steering
9 Committee has disclosed four witnesses. And there has 10 been an objection -- I take it it's an objection just 11 overall to these third-party witnesses; is that right?

12 MS. SHARKO: Overall, and then also
13 specifically to these four, so I think that's -- right
14 now that would be on the Judge Pisano list.

15 THE COURT: Okay. And I will tell you before
16 you go to him, I do not have a -- I'm not precluding
17 third-party depositions that are relevant to the 18 issues you want to discuss. I won't rule today on 19 these particular four or what the scope of them would 20 be, but I can certainly see them falling within the 21 same scope as we discussed under the 30(b)(6). And I
22 will not be disallowing them. So I'm not making a
23 ruling one way or the other. You'll have to make your 24 showing, I guess, to Judge Pisano, but I want you to 25 be clear not to think that you're only limited to

1 30(b)(6) here, and this is appropriate. So that's the 2 heads-up on that when you go see him.

3 Now, privilege challenges. I don't even know
4 where you stand on it. It looks like you're all still
5 conferring, I guess, on broader topics and documents
6 as opposed to specific documents; is that right?

7 MS. SHARKO: There's -- I believe there's two
8 levels. There are two different types of challenges.
9 One is generally, and the other is plaintiffs raised,
10 I think at the last conference, a specific group of 11 documents. And so now we're all meeting and 12 conferring with J&J Defendants. The meet and confer I
13 believe is tomorrow. I think Imerys is next week.
14 And we'll all be prepared, then, to go to Judge Pisano
15 if it can't be worked out.

16 THE COURT: Okay.

17 MS. SHARKO: It sounded to me -- when I was 18 told what our approach would be, it sounded reasonable
19 to me, so I would hope that we can get it done.

20 MR. BURNS: That's correct, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: Put your name, please, on the 22 record.

23 MR. BURNS: Warren Burns for the plaintiffs.
24 That is correct, your Honor. We're in the process of 25 conferring. And any disputes we'll take to

1 Judge Pisano.

2 THE COURT: Okay. And I know you have some
3 issues that you want to bring to Judge Pisano about
4 the samples and the testing. There are these rocks,
5 which are being dealt with.

6 MS. O'DELL: Well, your Honor, we think we are 7 entitled to inspect certain subsets of rocks. And so
8 that's the position we're taking. They're rocks that 9 arise from the mines that were sources of talc for the 10 products, and we think it's very clear we should be 11 entitled to at least inspect them. We can meet and 12 confer about whether testing is appropriate or 13 division is appropriate, but at least we want to the 14 see them.

15 MS. SHARKO: Well, I can solve that problem,
16 then. We thought they wanted to somehow take apart
17 the rocks and test them. If all they want to do is 18 look at the rocks, you're welcome to come look at the 19 rocks. I'll make sure that --

20 THE COURT: She's clearly saying, without
21 prejudice, they have the right to come back and ask
22 about testing them. But for the time being, you don't 23 have an issue, so they can come in and observe. And 24 you're not ready to go to the next step. Great.

25 MS. O'DELL: That's right. It makes no sense

1 to agree on a testing protocol, specifically, or 2 division if we don't feel like that's necessary, but
3 we have got to see them in order to make that 4 decision.

5 MS. SHARKO: Sure. Come look at the rocks.
6 This is the first MDL with a rock issue.

7 MR. PLACITELLA: We're going to bring the 8 paper and scissors.

9 MS. O'DELL: If all issues were that easy.

10 THE COURT: Okay. So look, at this point, you
11 don't have to bring that issue to Judge Pisano.

12 And then at the end of -- let's see, what's 13 next? Imerys says all is happy and you're agreeing on 14 dates to do your splits, right?

15 MS. DOTRO: Always, Judge, yes.

16 THE COURT: Always. All right.

17 Then, the expert reports and Daubert -- next
18 week, we're getting some sort of preliminary reports,
19 right?

20 MS. SHARKO: Tomorrow.

21 THE COURT: Is tomorrow the date?

22 MS. O'DELL: It's April the 9th.

23 THE COURT: I thought it was the 9th. I
24 thought it was Monday.

25 MS. SHARKO: Okay. Sorry.

1 THE COURT: Ms. Sharko was just so excited.

2 MS. O'DELL: Sitting on the edge of her seat,
3 your Honor. We'll provide that to the Court.

4 THE COURT: Please.

5 MS. O'DELL: And to the parties on Monday.

6 THE COURT: Great.

7 MS. O'DELL: Your Honor, would you like a hard
8 copy, or is an electronic copy of the report
9 sufficient? What's your preference?

10 THE COURT: It depends on how long it is. If 11 it's going to be long with attachments, send us a
12 courtesy copy as well as electronically sending it.
13 Just so we don't have to print it all out here.

14 MS. O'DELL: Absolutely. Thank you.

15 THE COURT: Thank you. And if it's short,
16 that's fine; you can just email it and file it.

17 MS. O'DELL: Thank you.

18 THE COURT: And then, it wouldn't be a status
19 conference without the request -- of the defendants --
20 for a date for expert reports and a Daubert hearing?

21 MS. SHARKO: Yes, please.

22 THE COURT: I think what I mentioned the last
23 time is we are tied to the testing. And since I don't 24 have definitive dates on the testing yet, as soon as I
25 get definitive dates on the testing and what issues

1 from that, I'll be scheduling the reports and the 2 hearing.

3 MS. SHARKO: Okay. Thanks. I believe
4 Judge Pisano gave us a June date to wrap it up, and 5 hopefully we'll be on target with that.

6 THE COURT: Okay. I didn't know if there
7 was some --

8 MS. O'DELL: Your Honor, if I can speak to 9 that. It's not what Judge Pisano said in his letter
10 of -- I think it's February the 6th. In fact, he said
11 he had looked at the protocol. He had extrapolated
12 the dates from the protocol. He says in his letter, 13 It's unlikely that the results would be available in 14 60 days. And if you say 60 days, it's mid-June. That 15 was Judge Pisano commenting without knowledge about 16 the number of samples in question, the protocol --

17 THE COURT: I remember that it was a little
18 loose on it, so that's fine. But I know that it was a
19 month that was out there but that it was not written
20 in stone. We're going to be meeting again before
21 then, and we'll see where we are and if that's a real
22 date or not, but that's what we're going to work off
23 of when those results are in. Okay.

24 MS. O'DELL: Thank you, your Honor.

25 THE COURT: So we're getting there,

1 Ms. Sharko. We're just not there today.

2 And then you happily tell me all the different
3 cases that have been filed in this MDL.

4 And then there's still the issue of the 5 duplicate filed cases that you're trying to resolve.
6 There are only 67 now. We're down quite a bit.

7 And what else? Anything else we have to 8 decide?

9 MS. SHARKO: No.

10 THE COURT: This was a quick one.

11 Did I give you a date -- go ahead.

12 MS. O'DELL: Your Honor, there is a matter
13 for -- internally on the Steering Committee's side.
14 If we can have a moment of the Court's time after the 15 hearing to talk with you privately about it. We would 16 appreciate it.

17 THE COURT: Sure. No problem.

18 MS. O'DELL: Thank you.

19 THE COURT: Did I give you a -- your next
20 conference date? When it is?

21 MS. SHARKO: We have May 15th, June 28th, and 22 we don't have a July date.

23 THE COURT: Okay. That's right. When you
24 come in in May, we can pick the July -- I know it's 25 just -- the last week in July will not be available

1 for me, but otherwise. We can pick one now, sure.

2 How about the third week in July, Jackie?

3 THE DEPUTY COURT CLERK: The week of the 16th?

4 THE COURT: No, the week of the 23rd is fine.

5 THE DEPUTY COURT CLERK: Any day but Monday.

6 THE COURT: The week of July 23rd, we can give 7 you, at this point, any day.

8 THE DEPUTY COURT CLERK: The 25th, Wednesday.

9 MS. SHARKO: That's fine with me.

10 MS. O'DELL: That's fine with me, your Honor.

11 If I can check with Ms. Parfitt, she sends her 12 apology. She had an unavoidable conflict today. But 13 if I might check with her and get back with the Court.

14 THE COURT: That's fine. Call Jackie.

15 THE DEPUTY COURT CLERK: I'll pencil it in for 16 10:30 on the 25th, and you let me know if that's fine.

17 MS. O'DELL: Thank you.

18 THE COURT: Anything else? No.

19 And, Ms. O'Dell, your request, is that 20 something you're meeting with the defendants on, or 21 just plaintiffs wanted to come in and talk?

22 MS. O'DELL: It's just the plaintiffs,
23 your Honor. And just for a very brief moment. We 24 just need your direction on how the Court would like
25 to handle an internal matter on the plaintiffs'

1 Steering Committee.

2 MS. SHARKO: I'm happy to mediate.

3 MS. O'DELL: I'm sure you are. We'll keep you
4 posted.

5 THE COURT: I don't know. This was an awfully
6 congenial meeting today. All right. It's going well.
7 That's fine.

8 So I'll let all of you go. And thank you for 9 coming in today. And I hope that your issues will get 10 resolved quickly with Judge Pisano and you'll move on 11 to your depositions. Thank you.

12 MS. O'DELL: Thank you, your Honor.

13 MS. SHARKO: Thank you, your Honor.

14 THE DEPUTY COURT CLERK: All rise.
